Downsizing Utah's National Monuments What's at Stake?

Jerry D. Spangler, our March luncheon speaker, will explore the effects of the recent presidential actions on Bears Ears and Grand Staircase National Monuments in his presentation, "Evaluation of What We are Losing Through Monument Reduction"

Mr. Spangler has devoted the past 20 plus years to archaeological research and public outreach with the express purpose of furthering the protection and preservation of cultural resources in the western United States.

He is the Executive Director of the Colorado Plateau Archaeological Alliance, a non-profit dedicated to the preservation of America's cultural treasures on public lands in the west. He is a recognized expert on prehistoric people of the northern Colorado Plateau and has published and lectured widely on archaeology and archaeological preservation.

Mr. Spangler is a member of the Bureau of Land Management's Resource Advisory Council and the Grand Staircase Escalante National Monument Advisory Council. He appeared on two PBS newscasts with Jeffery Brown explaining the importance and history of the archeological finds in the Nine Mile Canyon area southeast of Price, Utah.

He holds a Master of Arts, Anthropology from Brigham Young University.

Letter Sent to President-elect Ruth V. Watkins

Professor Ruth V. Watkins,
President-elect, University of Utah
201 President's Circle, Room 203
Salt Lake City, Utah 84112

January 24, 2018

Dear Ruth:

The Professors Emeriti Club's board and membership join me in sending you heartfelt congratulations on the occasion of your selection as the sixteenth president of the University of Utah.

We feel that we know you well from multiple angles, but especially as a result of your articulate presentations at our opening luncheons each of the last two years. You speak with compelling clarity and humanity. We are pleased that yours will be the leading voice of the University on campus, within the State of Utah, and around the world. You radiate common decency while speaking for the highest standards to which we must aspire in scholarship, teaching, and public service.

In sending our best wishes we also express our readiness to help you succeed. Please call on members of our highly committed and experienced group whenever we may lend a needed hand.

Cordially yours,
L. Jackson Newell, President
Professors Emeriti Club

College of Law

Wallace Stegner Center Lecture – Chip Ward

March 8 at 12:15 pm; free admission; lunch provided

Chip Ward, former assistant director of the Salt Lake City Public Library, co-founder of HEAL Utah and board member of the Southern Utah Wilderness Alliance for several years, will read from his new novel, Stony Mesa Sagas. According to Publishers Weekly, “Ward refracts the challenges of the modern American Southwest in this zany mosaic debut novel. In three nearly self-contained sections, residents of tiny Stony Mesa face off against outsiders who fail to appreciate the land.”

Tanner Humanities Center

World Leaders Lecture Forum - The Gritty Truth: Counterterrorism in an Era of Instability by John O. Brennan, Former CIA Director

March 14 at 11 am at the Utah Museum of Fine Arts-Dumke Auditorium

Free admission, no tickets required, limited seating

Join John Brennan for a no-holds-barred discussion of the current geopolitical landscape. Equipped with 36 years of intelligence agency experience, Brennan offers the gritty truth about national security, terrorism hot spots and foreign affairs, including expert insight on how the War on Terror impacts our everyday lives and businesses. He will discuss the future of cybersecurity, the challenges posed by instability and biotechnology threats, and the necessity of meaningful intelligence sharing between allies.

Wanted: Two Good People

This coming year (2018-2019) we have two vacancies in our officers' group. The two officer positions are President-Elect and Secretary. The President Elect will succeed to the office of President and then Past President. The Secretary is a one-year office, but may be extended by agreement of that officer and the Executive Board. All officers constitute the Executive Board which meets once a month following the luncheon dates.

Dennis Alexander and Jeff Paoletti enjoyed their time as officers and board members. Contact them about their duties; both have contact information in the listing of officers. The Emeriti Club only flourishes when members step forward to volunteer a little time to advance the mission of the Club!

Hiking Group February-August Schedule

We continue to have volunteers from our hiking list leading our weekly Friday morning hikes. We thank all you who have stepped forward to lead as we particularly enjoy discovering new hikes. Please suggest new places we don't know about. We have dates for some of our summer activities, so you might want to mark you calendars. Contact suzanne.stensaas@hsc.utah.edu to be on the mailing list.
