RECORD and REMEMBER

MEG BRADY is Professor Emerita of English at the University of Utah, where she has taught courses in the life story, folklore and American Indian Studies for over 35 years and has been honored with several prestigious teaching awards. She is also the founding Director of Your-Story: Record and Remember, a project to record the life stories of all Utahns, especially those in hospice care. Brady's most recent book, Mormon Healer and Folk Poet: Mary Susannah Fowler's Life of "Unselfish Usefulness" (Utah State University Press 2000), was awarded the American Folklore Society's Elli Kon-gas-Maranda Prize. Brady will speak at the luncheon February 3.

EMERITI CLUB TOUR 2015

Nova Scotia & Prince Edward Island

June 16 - 25, 2015

If you are on the fence about whether you wish to join your Emeriti Club colleagues for our wonderful tour of the Canadian Maritimes, I must report that as of January 12, there was one place only remaining. The tour is now, in effect, SOLD OUT. However, if you really do want to go, you may put your name on a wait-list in case there are any cancellations.

FOR THOSE WHO HAVE SIGNED UP: Monica is currently at work on our flights. You will receive more information in the mail soon.

Pictured here is one of the sights we will visit: the delightful Anne of Green Gables House, located in Cavendish in the midst of Prince Edward Island National Park. This charming white and green clapboard farmhouse inspired Lucy Maud Montgomery's beloved 1908 novel about Anne Shirley, the red-tressed orphan with the big imagination, who longed for a home, a family, and a bosom friend.

For a virtual tour of the house, go to <http://www.tourismpei.com/green-gables-house>.

Land cost: $1195 + $199 in taxes & fees per person double occupancy = $1394 ppdo

$1729 + $219 in taxes & fees for a single = $1948 pp

$1075 + $189 in taxes & fees for a triple = $1264

Final payment: Due 60 days prior to departure.

Trip insurance: $99.00 per person (cancel for any reason); due at time of deposit.

Pioneer Theatre Company's season

Play-By-Play

<http://www.pioneertheatre.org/play-play/>

“Play-By-Play” is Pioneer Theatre Company’s new play-reading series. It provides developmental rehearsal periods for three new plays, with the playwright working alongside a professional director and cast for a week-long residency, culminating in three public readings of each play available to theatregoers at a very modest cost. By doing them as readings, with no sets or costumes, we invite our audience to take a risk with us at a very modest cost. The program launched in 2014 and will continue in 2015.

Here are the dates for this season’s Play-By-Play readings:

Speculator Spirits

by Josh Tobiesen Directed by Wes Grantom Feb. 20-21

Slow Food

by Wendy MacLeod Directed by Julie Kramer March 6-7

Mr. Wheeler’s

by Rob Zellers Director TBA March 27-28

By Arthur Miller

In 1692, a group of young girls suddenly manifest signs of “demonic possession.” Before the hysteria ends twenty Salem townspeople are dead – executed by the Commonwealth of Massachusetts for the crime of witchcraft. The Crucible is a landmark work of the American theatre, at once a powerful cautionary tale and a mesmerizing psychological drama.

From the Oldies Archive ... and Still Funny

If you're not familiar with the work of Steven Wright, he's the erudite scientist who said:

"I woke up and all of my stuff had been stolen and replaced by exact duplicates."

Here are some of his gems:

- A conscience is what hurts when all your other parts feel so good.
- A clear conscience is usually the sign of a bad memory.
- I'd kill for a Nobel Peace Prize.
- I intend to live forever. So far, so good.
- What happens if you get scared half to death twice?
- When everything is coming your way, you're in the wrong lane.
- To steal ideas from one person is plagiarism; to steal from many is research.
- The hardness of the butter is proportional to the softness of the bread.
- Experience is something you don't get until just after you need it.
- A conclusion is the place where you got tired of thinking.
