A University of Utah Professor and Humanitarian Speaks on “The Burden of Blindness: Reducing Curable Blindness in Outreach Settings”

As Senior Medical Director of the Moran Eye Center’s Global Outreach Division, Dr. Alan Crandall is passionate about, and deeply committed to, eliminating the overwhelming burden of curable blindness in the most underserved, neglected and impoverished regions of the world. Dr. Crandall started his humanitarian work in Ghana in 1996 and since has traveled to more than 25 countries performing surgeries and teaching cataract and glaucoma surgery to the most promising ophthalmologists in those countries. After nearly 20 years, Dr. Crandall is witnessing the fruits of his labor as many countries and regions where he has dedicated his efforts are starting to develop and maintain their own sustainable eye care delivery systems. Our February speaker has earned respect and warm affection from patients and colleagues in Utah, throughout the United States and across the world. He is the only physician to receive humanitarian awards from all three major ophthalmology organizations: the 2016 American Glaucoma Society (AGS) Humanitarian Award; the 2014 American Academy of Ophthalmology (AAO) Humanitarian Award; and the 2013 American Society of Cataract and Refractive Surgery Humanitarian Award.

Be with us at our luncheon on Wednesday, February 12 to hear his story and to learn more about his incredible, impactful, life-affirming journey.

Emeritus in Action/Campus Event

On January 26, at 3:00 p.m. in the Gould Auditorium of the J. Willard Marriott Library, Dale Poulter, Distinguished Professor Emeritus of Chemistry, will give a presentation titled “Populating the Tree of Life. Genetic Changes Through Mutations, Alliances, Wars, and Sex.” His presentation, open to all, is sponsored by the Friends of the Marriott Library. He will discuss the exciting work, begun in 1952, which led to the groundbreaking discovery of a new domain of life, the Archaea, which now represents a major branch on the tree of life. Advanced genetic technology and the Human Genome Initiative made it possible for scientists to discover that in addition to the traditional mechanism for evolution, new traits can also be acquired by the transfer of large pieces of DNA from another species.

Emeriti Club Hiking Group News

We continue with our weekly Friday hikes. Full Park and Ride lots early in the morning and canyon congestion present a challenge, so even more reason to carpool with us. We are using either microspikes (Yaktrax) or Snowshoes depending on the conditions. Email announcements come out 5 or 6 days ahead to those on the mailing list. Make a New Year’s resolution to get out and exercise more, and do it with interesting people, like you. Contact suzanne.stensaas@hsc.utah.edu.

Four stately homes, two open just for us! Poldark! (When I told an English friend, an archaeologist who joins us at Elton Hall, I had added Chavenage House to our itinerary, he told me, "The daughter who runs the house is apparently quite eccentric and should be very good value for a typically bonkers English House chatelaine." Perfect!) You also have an option to extend your stay in London. And, of course, you'll have the best of traveling companions!

But the clock is ticking on this once-in-a-lifetime 400th anniversary Mayflower-themed tour. AT THE LEONARDO ~ April 23, 2020

In AD79 the sleeping giant Mount Vesuvius exploded into flame burying the Roman cities of Pompeii & Herculaneum nestled on its flanks in ash and pyroclastic flow, thus preserving them. The Leonardo is now hosting an exhibition of over 150 Pompeiian artifacts from the Naples National Archaeological Museum and featuring multimedia recreations of market, temple, theatre and baths to reveal what life was like in the Roman Empire during the first century of the Common Era. If that weren't intriguing enough, you will also experience the sights and sounds of the eruption of the volcano itself!

The regular cost of admission for this exhibition is $25 with a reduction to $22 for seniors. With our group discount and a further Club subsidy, YOU may attend this fascinating exhibition for only $15! The savings are enough to buy you lunch at the Salt Bistro, located inside The Leonardo, after seeing the exhibition. (For the Bistro menu of sandwiches, salads, & small plates & snacks, see <https://theleonardo.org/salt-bistro>.) We can relax and talk about what we have just seen!

We are scheduled to visit the exhibition on Thursday, April 23, 2020, at 10:00am, just as The Leonardo (209 E 500 S) opens its doors, so we will be ahead of the crowd. For parking, see: <https://theleonardo.org/directions-parking>. We ask that those interested in joining us please pay by check, either through the mail or in person at the luncheon. You will find a reservation form on page 5. The timed tickets will be distributed at the April luncheon; or mailed to you if you are not able to attend. See you in the First Century!

Aaron Sorkin's TO KILL A MOCKINGBIRD at the Grand Theatre

There is still time to request tickets to see To Kill a Mockingbird, currently running on Broadway, right here in SLC and for nothing like Broadway prices. We are getting our tickets for a mere $16—that's a 40% discount!!! We have center section seats for the March 28, 2020, 2pm matinee. The Grand is located at 1575 South State St.

Please fill out the reservation form on page 5 and send it to our treasurers along with your check. Then add the play to your calendar! Tickets will be distributed at the March luncheon, or if you aren't able to join us in March we can mail you the tickets.
