

NEWSLETTER No. 3 November 2016

Professors Emeriti Club

..... University of Utah

It's beginning to sound
a lot like *Christmas

What nearly has become a holiday tradition now is anticipated as a holiday treat. The University Chamber Choir under the deft direction of Conductor Barlow Bradford will appear December 6 at the monthly Emeriti Club luncheon to deliver its annual Yuletide musical gift.

Dr. Bradford

It's the fourth luncheon holiday concert by the gifted group, which attests to its popularity among emeriti devotees. And given the Choir's well-established reputation both across the nation and abroad, the Emeriti Club should feel well "gifted."

The 24-28 member Choir, re-established in 2012 in honor of the late Bernard Hales (Professor Emeritus of Music), maintains the standards he set during his two decades at the U.

The Choir performs numerous works by Dr. Bradford, an active composer and arranger, as well as private commissions by other composers. The group often collaborates with ensembles, from the School of Music and off campus, including the conductor's professional choir, Utah Chamber Artists.

Chamber Choir members participate in the highest quality choral experience. Choirs under Professor Bradford's direction are known for their beauty of tone, musical nuance, and clear, ringing sound.

In 2014 the U Chamber Choir won first place in the Florilege Vocal Tours in France.

EMERITI DOINGS

David Jabusch (Emeritus Professor, Communication) is collecting bicycles for young adults who are aging out of foster care and in jeopardy of becoming homeless. The Youth Mentoring Project receives bikes, checks their condition, and places them with needy young adults. The project has merged with the Bicycle Collectors to enable delivery of the bikes. If you'd like to donate a bike in any condition, take it to the Bicycle Collectors, 2312 S West Temple (Tue & Thur, 3-9 pm; Sat & Sun, noon-5 pm). Tell them you are with the Youth Mentoring Project or Dave Jabusch, and he will pay for a bicycle lock. If you are unable to deliver your donated bike, call Dave (801.583.0601). He will pick it up or answer your questions beforehand.

2017 EMERITI TOUR: 31 August – 14 September 2017

Best of Devon & Cornwall + a Week in London

With an Option for Downton Abbey

If you have always longed to experience London with time to see the sights of your own choosing and at your own pace, here is your opportunity! After a week in London, a change of scene: we're off to the dramatic SW corner of Britain.

Bonus: If you loved Downton Abbey you won't want to miss the chance to visit the house itself, Highclere Castle, as well as Bampton in Oxfordshire, which served as the village in the series. PLEASE BE AWARE these daytours sell out quickly and we cannot reserve group space—it's first come first served. So when you sign up for the trip you'll want to book this optional at the same time.

Michele has some excellent news about OUR LONDON HOME. She has secured rooms in a lovely boutique hotel, the Grange White Hall, in the West End just out of Russell Square with a garden that backs onto the British Museum—and at a cracking good price, much lower than that listed in the preliminary itinerary! At the current rate of exchange, we will pay about $1200 total for a double or twin room for six nights; that's about $600 per person, double occupancy...in London! Woohoo! (Approx. $1120 for a single.) That price includes continental breakfast daily and the 20% VAT. SPACE IS LIMITED at this price!!!! The hotel is a short walk from Russell Square Underground station and within walking distance of many West End theatres, as well as the British Museum, British Library, Dickens House, Foundling Hospital (where the manuscript of Handel's Messiah is kept), Pollock's Toy Museum, the Brunswick Centre (with coffee shops, grocery & drug stores, restaurants), and Oxford Street (for you shoppers). To hold your room you must contact Whitehall.reservations@grangehotels.com with our unique reference number; you will then be sent a provisional confirmation with a secure weblink enabling you to supply your credit card information, thus guaranteeing your reservation. Your card will not be charged until you check in to the hotel next September 1st.

Deposit: $200 (non-refundable) due ASAP to qualify for additional 10% early payment discount** on Devon/Cornwall. Pay D/C portion in full by Jan.12 and Devon/Cornwall = $1560.38! (Otherwise $1733.75)

Airfare: $1435 (direct SLC-London) Transfers: $70 Travel Insurance: optional, but recommended

*Tour total incl. air: approx. $3670 with discount***

Questions? Call Michele 801-582-2806; Monica at Thomas Travel 801-266-2775

UPCOMING ACTIVITIES

Your Activities Coördinator has arranged for interested Emeriti Club members to attend two different performances coming up in January and February at a 20% discount complemented by an additional Club subsidy. They are:

Utah Opera: Man of La Mancha

Where, when, how much: Capitol Theatre, Sun. Jan. 29, 2017, 2:00pm, $25 per ticket.

Utah Symphony: Mozart's Requiem
