Professors Emeriti Club

University of Utah

No. 6 February 2015

Tim Chambless is an Associate Professor/Lecturer in the Department of Political Science and the Academic Outreach Coordinator for the Hinckley Institute of Politics at the U.

He speaks frequently to community groups and the news media on politics and government.

He has taught classes since 1987 in American National Government and Political Parties, State and Local Government as well as Law and Politics, Controversial Legal Issues and Constitutional Law.

For 15 years (1990-2005) he handled The Constitution telecourse that was seen statewide on KULC-TV (now KUEN). He is assisting former U.S. senator Bob Bennett with a unique student seminar focused on U.S. politics and government. He has taught Osher Lifelong Learning courses on campus (Current Events, Conspiracy Theories, Terrorism Law) since 2007.

Since 1994 Tim has organized and led a unique one-week seminar to Washington, D.C. where his Hinckley Institute students have the nation's capital as their classroom. 2015 is his 22nd consecutive year of planning and leading this seminar.

Tim has observed the Utah State Legislature for over four decades – as an intern and city lobbyist, Channel 7 reporter and Hinckley intern coordinator, and now as a professor of a new class using the Legislature as a case study of state government today.

Prior to teaching, he worked for Salt Lake City Mayor Ted Wilson and Utah Governor Scott Matheson, Congressman Wayne Owens and U.S. Senator Frank Moss. He served over 20 years as a volunteer citizen planner on the Salt Lake City Board of Adjustment and City Planning Commission.

Tim was born and raised in Houston, Texas, and earned his B.A. at the University of California–Santa Barbara, and his Master's and Ph.D. at the University of Utah.

He wrote his thesis and dissertation on investigative reporter Jack Anderson and the Watergate scandal.

Tim's wife Cathy teaches Public Administration and Disability Studies at the U. Their daughter Dominique is a U undergraduate who now works for the United Nations in Myanmar/Burma. This July 4th they will celebrate their daughter's marriage.

Son Ross and daughter-in-law Ikue last month gave Tim and Cathy their first grandchild. Ross is a reporter for public radio KCPW-FM. During the past legislative session he produced the weekly "Left, Right, and Center" program from the Capitol offices of now Speaker Greg Hughes, Senator Jim Dabakis, and U of U associate business dean Natalie Gochnour.

U of U Emeriti Hiking Group

2015 Schedule

DUE TO SPACE LIMITATIONS IN THIS ISSUE, ONLY THE FIRST HALF OF THE HIKING SCHEDULE IS BEING PRINTED. THE SECOND HALF WILL APPEAR IN THE MARCH NEWSLETTER For hiking information:

Suzanne Stensaas: suzanne.stensaas@hsc.utah.edu Bill Gray: cyberflora@xmission.com

All hikes begin on Friday mornings, except during the extended trip to Capitol Reef. Details of time and meeting place will be sent by the trip leaders about a week ahead of time. Because they are sent to a list of many addresses they might end up in your 'junk/spam' folder: check there if you seem to be missing out. If a trip has to be canceled we reschedule for the following week if possible. It is always a courtesy to let the trip leader know if you plan to be on a hike – and they can inform you of any last minute changes.

Upcoming Special Activities

Cinderella

Utah Ballet ~ 3 April 2015, 7:30pm ~ Kingsbury Hall

The Utah Ballet, the resident student company of the U of U's Department of Ballet, will be presenting the classic story of Cinderella for two nights only at Kingsbury Hall this coming April. This rags-to-riches fairy tale replete with a warm-hearted heroine, a charming prince, wicked stepmother, and ugly stepsisters is guaranteed to delight the child in all of us. As an additional treat, the Prokofiev score will be performed by the Utah Philharmonic.

Order your tickets now for $10 (with $1 Club subsidy) by filling out the reservation form on page five. Tickets will be distributed at the March luncheon, or mailed at your request.

A Funny Thing Happened on the Way to the Forum

Theatre Dept. ~ 18 April 2015, 2:00pm ~ Babcock Theatre

The students of the Musical Theatre Program, Department of Theatre, present as their spring offering this wickedly funny modern take on ancient Roman Plautine farce. Expect all your favorite stock characters from the frustrated young lovers to the senex who would block their romance to the clever slave who makes all things possible—in exchange for his freedom. With a book by Burt Shevelove & Larry Gelbart (*M*A*S*H*) and music & lyrics by the great Stephen Sondheim, you should brace yourself for snappy tunes, witty lyrics, and clever fast-paced action!

Tickets are available for us at half price – that's $9 (courtesy of the Theatre Dept. and with a further $1 Club subsidy) – and will be distributed at the April luncheon, or mailed at your request. Please fill out the reservation form on page five.

Pioneer Theatre Company's season

I Hate Hamlet

by Paul Rudnick

“Unapologetically silly and...hilarious”

The New York Times

“You just can’t hate ‘I Hate Hamlet.’”

L.A. Times

Andrew Rally is on top of the world. He’s a big TV star, and has just moved into a ritzy apartment in Manhattan, so he can start rehearsals for his New York debut as Hamlet. There’s only one problem—he hates Hamlet—and when the ghost of John Barrymore shows up to help him prepare for the role, he’s in for the ride of his life.
