

Luncheon Presentation--May 14, 2013, Tuesday, 12:15 pm
The Grid of Salt Lake City
How the evolution of a place is tied to its foundation

Brenda Case Scheer

Brenda Case Scheer, AIA, FAICP, has been the dean of the College of Architecture + Planning at the University of Utah since 2002. She is a nationally recognized authority on urban design, design legislation, and the development of cities. Her most recent book is The Evolution of Urban Form: Typology for Planners and Architects. She won the prestigious Chicago Institute of Architecture and Urbanism Prize for her writing, and she was a Loeb Fellow at the Harvard Graduate School of Design.

Dean Scheer has grown the College dramatically, establishing new departments of City and Metropolitan Planning, as well as Interdisciplinary Design. She has marshaled University resources and her own expertise to bear on community problems and issues, including downtown redevelopment and design, support for public transportation, regional smart growth, enhanced urban design, and support for artist housing and regional arts facilities

Dean Scheer is appointed to the Salt Lake City Redevelopment Advisory Committee, the Salt Lake County Center for the Arts Board and the United States GSA National Register of Peer Professionals. She serves on the boards of Envision Utah, Artspace, and was also on boards of the Utah Chapter of the American Planning Association, the Utah AIA chapter and the Landscape Architecture Foundation.

A Little Aid for Friends

Several people have expressed an interest in attending the monthly luncheons but are deterred by a lack of transportation. If you know of an emeriti friend who may wish to attend a luncheon, please give them a call and see if you may provide a ride. It is a nice gesture!

A New Emeriti Club Member

A SUMMER 2013 TOUR Fort Douglas Museum June 11, 2013 12:00-4:00 pm

Following a presentation about the Fort Douglas Museum several people expressed an interest in touring the museum. Don Hague, our President, contacted the Museum and has helped arrange a summer tour of the Fort Douglas Museum.

The mission of the Fort Douglas Military Museum is to:

- PRESERVE and interpret the history of Fort Douglas
- EDUCATE visitors about the role of the military in the growth and development of Utah, and
- HONOR all Utahns who have served their country in uniform.

Through exhibits, educational programming and publications, the Museum seeks to engage and inform the public about Utah's rich military heritage.

The tour will begin with lunch catered by Chartwell's and served at the Museum. Following lunch, a guided tour will give visitors a view of the major exhibits. After the guided tour, Emeriti Club members are free to explore the Museum in more depth.

The cost of the tour and lunch is $15.00. To reserve a place in the tour, fill out the coupon and send it with your check to Jeanne Robson, Treasurer.

Utah Symphony 2013-14 Finishing Touches Series Deadline Extended

In discussions with the Utah Symphony, it was discovered the Emeriti Club may offer an extended deadline to Finishing Touches. The new deadline for reserving tickets is May 8, 2013. If you wish to participate in this unusual symphony experience, please send your reservation and check to Jeanne Robson (coupon on the last page of this newsletter).

Once again the Utah Symphony is offering discount tickets for the Finishing Touches Series next year. These concerts are actually final rehearsals for the program to be presented that evening, and are rather informal. Like the musicians, you're invited to come as you are. Parking in the lot across the street from Abravanel Hall, next door at the Plaza Hotel, or City Creek Mall is inexpensive and convenient. All events are Friday mornings at 10:00 AM, and if you get there early, free light refreshments are available. The price will be the same as last year $44 for the package of four concerts. This is a great deal as prices (for us) haven't increased.

2013-14 FINISHING TOUCHES SCHEDULE

- October 25: Mozart's Piano Concerto No. 25; Dukas "Fanfare" from La Peri and "The Sorcerer's Apprentice"; Sibelius, Symphony # 5
- December 6: Schubert, Symphony No. 8 "Unfinished"; Dutilleux, "The Starry Night"; Tchaikovsky, Symphony No.3 "Polish"
- February 7: Mozart, Mass In C "Trinity"; Shostakovich, Symphony No. 7 "Leningrad"
- May 23: Tchaikovsky, "Variations On A Rococco Theme; Neilsen, Symphony No.6 "Sinfonia Semplice"; Rachmaninoff, "Symphonic Dances"

Please fill out the coupon in this letter and send with your check to the U of U Emeriti Club at: Jeanne Robson

Your tickets will be mailed to you around mid July or August, or as soon as they become available from the Utah Symphony's ticket office. Any questions, please contact Henry Wolking henry.wolking@music.utah.edu or 801 664 8147.

European Trip Prague to Budapest Deposit Deadline May 1, 2013

Dates for Tour are Sept. 26-Oct. 6, 2013
(11 days and 10 nights)

We hope you can join us for our trip to three of the most beautiful cities in Europe; Prague, Vienna and Budapest, during a very pleasant time of the year. We'll spend three nights in each city with free time to make fun discoveries at our own pace.

Sightseeing highlights in Prague include visits to St. Vitus Cathedral, Prague Castle, Old Town Square and the historic Charles Bridge. We'll spend a half-day in Bratislava, capital of Slovakia, on our way to Vienna where we will view the Presidential Palace and the quaint Old Town section. In Vienna we'll have a guided tour of the Parliament, the Hofburg Palace, the Opera House and St. Stephen's Cathedral. In Budapest, we'll view the Chain Bridge and visit the UNESCO-listed Castle Hill district and Fisherman's Bastion.

Since Cheryll May, our trip organizer, is a former art museum curator, you can be sure that the art and architecture freaks in the group will have plenty of opportunities to enjoy the artistic treasures of each capital. The official tour guide will have many additional suggestions for the best restaurants, shopping, and other pursuits.

The base fee is $2085.25 per person (double occupancy) plus airfare and mandatory trip insurance and airport transfers. The fee includes first-class hotel accommodations in all three cities, touring by luxury motor coach, a multi-lingual tour director, and local guides in Vienna and Budapest. It also includes 9 hot buffet breakfasts and 4 evening meals.

The initial deposit of $200 plus $249 for travel insurance is due by May 1. For more information, please call or email Cheryll at 801-906-0501 (cheryll_may@byu.edu) or Monica at Thomas Travel 801-266-2775.

This is not a coupon but a way to organize your thinking for the payment to Thomas Travel

A FAREWELL FOR THE ACADEMIC YEAR

This newsletter is the last of the 2012 2013 academic year. The first mission of the newsletter is to keep you informed about the monthly luncheon and guest presentation. Your Board tries mightily to find people and ideas of interest and timeliness. The second mission is to keep you informed of emeriti doings. This area is largely dependent on people sending bits of news about themselves and others to the Newsletter Editor. Another mission is to find entertaining and informative activities. This year the programs of the School of Music and their vouchers have been an extra addition to other elements we have done for years.

This editor is signing off for a couple of months of golf and travel and not bothering people about meeting my deadlines. Have a great and enjoyable summer. Dennis Alexander
